Sir,

Subject -Re the reconstitution of Tumkur Town
Municipal Council, from 1st January 1947

In continuation of this Office letter No A6 C 1109-1/46-47 dated 21st December 1946, reporting to Government the results of the Municipal elections held in Tumkur Town and also submitting my proposals for nomination to the said Council, I have the honour to state that on further consideration I have slightly modified my proposals. I am of opinion, that, Dr H N Gangadhar, I M P who belongs to Swakula Sale Mahratta weavers Community deserves to be on the Municipal Council. He is an independent candidate and his nomination to the Municipal Council will have much weight and is necessary in the present circumstances than that of the Christian representative Mr T A Jojappa. As such, I recommend that Mr Chikkasiddiah, Contractor be nominated to represent the "Balagai" sub sect of Adidravida community, Dr H N Gangadhar be nominated instead of Mr T A M Jojappa and for the third vacancy either Mr R Venkata Rao, Cloth Merchant or Mr N T Lakshmana Gowda, Advocate, Tumkur may kindly be nominated.

not been given a chance to serve on the Municipal Council

I am serving as a secretary of Bhavasara

Committee and District Elementary Education Committee I have also served as a Chairman Of the NATIONAL WAR FRONT

Subject - Re the reconstitution of Tumkur Town

1947

In continuation of this Office letter No A6 C 1109-1/46-47 dated 21st December 1946, reporting to Government the results of the Municipal elections held in Tumkur Town and also submitting my proposals for nomination to the said Council, I have the honour to state that on further consideration I have slightly modified my proposals. I am of opinion, that, Dr H N Gangadhar, L M P , who belongs to Swakula Sale Mahratta Weavers Community deserves to be on the Municipal Council. He is an independent candidate and his nomination to the Municipal Council will have much weight and is necessary in the present circumstances than that of the Christian representative Mr T A Jojappa. As such, I recommend that Mr Chikkasiddiah, Contractor be nominated to represent the "Balagai" sub sect of Adidravida community, Dr H N Gangadhar be nominated instead of Mr T A Jojappa and for the third vacancy either Mr T Venkata Rao, Cloth Merchant or Mr N T Lakshmana Go da, Advocate, Tumkur may kindly be nominated.

The Minister for Revenue and Communications, to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

B A N G A L O R E

Mr. Lakshmana Rao
Most Respected Sir,

I respectfully beg to submit the following few lines for your gracious consideration and orders

I come from a BHAVASA A KSHATRIYA (DAZI) sub-class BOMBHO-E community, which is lost backward and which is not represented in the Town Municipal Council, Tumkur, either by nomination or by election since a long time though Tumkur Town contains my community population of over five hundred at present

Christians, Jains, Mudaliars, Nairs, Parats, Tigalas, Muslims and depressed classes are being nominated several times for this Municipal Council. My community has been neglected and has not been given a chance to serve on the Municipal Council

I am serving as a secretary of Bhavasara Kshatriya Sangha and a member of the High School Scholarship Committee and District Elementary Education Committee. I have also served as a Chairman of the National War Front Committee in Tumkur Taluk and served the country

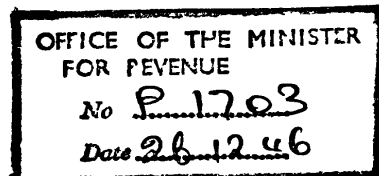

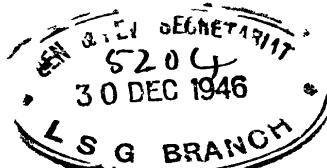

I, therefore, respectfully pray that I may be nominated as a member of the Tumkur Town Municipal Council and thus give me a chance to serve the community and the public in general to my utmost ability. I have also given a representation in person along with the Sangha's report

For this act of kindness, I shall be ever grateful in life

I beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
